REEN SPRING HYDROPATHIC INSTI-TUTE in Baltimore County, 14 miles on the Susquebonn Railroad, and 10 miles by the Reistera-tiown Tuinpike from Baltimore. This institution will be opened on the 12th of August, for the recep-tion of Patients and under the direction and charge of William Bode, M. D, late of Washington city, pupil of the celebrated Priesniz, founder of the sys-the invalids of our city and state, and those of our sister states, who would resort to this mode of our sister states, who would resort to this mode of our shave, spared neither pains nor means to place this institution on a footing with those of this country, after the plan of those in Germany. The house has been newly pointed and furnished with new furniture, and specially altered and arranged for comfort to the patients and for the utmost efficiency of the treatment. A new Bath-house has been added to the main house, containing all the necessary bath apparatus. A Douche house is building which will contain 4 douches, [2 for ladies and 2 for gentlemen] which will have a fail of from 12 to 2 feet, and in volume from 12 to 2 facehas in diameter.

There are four large springs on the place at a temperature of 54° Fatenhrit, highly impregnated with carbonic gas in constant effervesance. The water is ternsrkably light and all the springs are shaded by large trees. Walks lead from one to the other, giving ample opportunity for walking. The place as known as one of the healthlest and most de rightful in Maryland.

WESTMINSTER REVIEW,
The above Periodicals are reprinted in N. York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful cepies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac-sintile of the Edinburgh edition.

The wide-spread fame of those splendid periodicals renders it needless to say much in their praise. As literary organs, they stand far in advance of any works of a similar stamp now published, while the political complexion of each is marked by a dignity, candor, and forbearance, not often found in works of a party character.
They embrace the views of the three great parties in England—Whig, Tory, and Radical.
"Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whig, and the "W-stminster," Radical. The "North British Review" is of a more Religious cast, and has for its cellors Sir David Brewster and Dr. Hanna, senmelaw of the lete Dr. Chalmers, of Edinburgh. Its literary articles are of the first-order, and it is libcrail in topolities.

The prices of the reprints are less than onethird of those of the foreign copies; and, while they are equally well got up, they afford all that advantage to the "merican over the English reader."
